This role involves providing technical support during get-ins, fit-ups and get-outs, as well as operating technical equipment during live events across multiple disciplines including Vision, Lighting, Sound, Counterweight Flying and Rigging.

Working closely with the Senior Technician - Vision, you will assist in maintaining all vision equipment in the venue, ensuring proper use, care, and safety.

You will need to understand the venue's technical infrastructure, including networking, equipment installation, NDI, projection equipment and patching systems.

The role requires direct interaction with clients, production companies and Senior Management, demanding excellent communication skills and meticulous attention to detail.

You will also provide supervision, guidance and support for casual and freelance staff and service partners to ensure safe working practices are followed throughout events.

The ideal candidate will have demonstrable experience in operating video equipment to a high-level during conferences and events, with expertise in video hardware, networked video and presentation and software platforms such as Office, Zoom, etc.

We highly value the behaviours, attitudes and skills which will help you to develop and excel in this role. In this case, we're looking for someone who:

- Has the ability to multi-task, being self-motivated with the capability to work as part of a team and independently are essential for success in this role.
- Can demonstrate emotional intelligence, pragmatism, resilience, confidence, excellent customer service and first-class communication skills including conflict resolution.

Essential requirements include experience in professional entertainment and corporate presentations, knowledge of a busy multi-venue facility, awareness of Health and Safety practices and legislation, and understanding of all elements of production for live events.

Previous experience of large corporate events, sporting events, concerts, exhibitions and working within a similar sized venue would be advantageous.

If you are a hardworking and committed professional ready to contribute to our continued success, we'd love to hear from you.

Join us at The ACC Liverpool Group and be part of something extraordinary.

Please note, we may close this vacancy before the stated closing date if we receive sufficient applications for the position. Therefore, if you are interested in this position, please submit your application form as soon as possible.
